

TRAINING SCHEDULE

FREE basic construction training for adults seeking skills that can lead to good-paying jobs in Alaska's construction workforce.

2017/2018

MAT-SU ACADEMY COURSES

APPLY ONLINE NOW: CLICK HERE

Electrical Pre-Apprenticeship

October 2nd—October 6th: Held Monday—Friday from 8:30am - 5:00pm

Training covers: * Basic electrical theory * Electrical code * Blueprints * Tool safety

Hands-on training includes: * Wiring of switches, GFCI receptacles, duplex receptacles, panels, 3-way and 4-way switches, and bending EMT and rigid conduit.

Carpentry 1

October 9th—October 13th: Held Monday—Friday from 8:30am —5:00pm

This training covers: * Basics of carpentry * Safety awareness * Trades math * Accurately reading and using a tape measure * Proper and safe use of power tools * Building layout using the 3-4-5 method

* Applying trades math to make compound cuts with a Skil-saw to build a sawhorse and stairs

* Construction site education and carpenter expectations.

Apply online today: www.alaskaworks.org

Requirements

SPACE IS LIMITED, APPLY NOW!

- Complete MCA application online.
- Complete WorkKeys math test at the Mat-Su Job Center (Call 352-2500 to pre-register) & submit results to Alaska Works Partnership or attach copy to your online application.
- Provide copy of photo ID.

*less requirements for military members, call for more information

We do not have an office in Mat-Su; we outreach through the Mat-Su Job Center.

For more information contact:

Alaska Works Partnership
Construction Academies
mark@alaskaworks.org
Phone: 907-569-4734 Fax: 907-569-4716

ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF LABOR & WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT